

1821

The year 1821 was when the Greeks began the war of independence to free themselves from the Ottoman Empire. Our struggle was soon shared by progressive thinkers from Britain, France and Russia; eager to restore the freedom of the world's first democracy. After 12 years, they triumphed together and Greece was reborn.

The concept of 'philotimo' is our theme, best translated into English as 'integrity' or 'authenticity'. Our hospitality is a celebration of the Greek identity for which our ancestors fought in 1821.

'The restaurant is a project of the love and passion from my Hellenic roots. It is a project that I can claim proudly to be 100% Greek idea, design, decoration and materials. With this in mind I have created a space made in Greece. Welcome to 1821'.

Jim Kospetas, Founder of 1821, Martin Place

'Throughout history Hellenes have shared their table with family and friends as a show of hospitality and generosity. I have designed this menu with inspiration from my experiences and philosophy taught through the Greek ages. The Odyssey may have begun in Greece, but it has now found its home, here in 1821'.

David Tsirekas, Executive Chef
